PRISONS: TERROR FOR THE POOR –PROFITS FOR THE RICH!

On Sat., June 11, 2011, from 11 AM to 2 PM, the Chicano Mexicano Prison Project (CMPP) will hold its Annual Conference On Raza Prisoners and Colonialism. The theme of the conference is PRISONS: TERROR FOR THE POOR –PROFITS FOR THE RICH!, and it will be held at the Logan Heights Library, located in Barrio Logan, San Diego, Califaztlan.

For two decades the CMPP, a project of Unión del Barrio, has been struggling to expose the terrorist nature of U.S. Prison System, how its used as weapon of oppression and control of the poor and working class –while it brings billions in profits for the rich.

This year's conference will focus on a round-table discussion/platica where everyone present will be provided an opportunity to share their perspectives and what needs to be done to end this oppressive and terroristic system.

If you would like to participate and endorse the conference, please contact us immediately at:
