Christina Lares: Ya Basta! Time to break the physical, emotional and mental chains of oppression by any means necessary. Gente, if you are not part of the solution, your part of the problem. Join the struggle for dignity, respect and our human right to live happy and free

Carlos Martell: Just because you don't see any chains, it doesn't mean we are Free!...In 2012 break the shackles of Imperialism-Injustice-Racism-Colonization-Self-Hatred-Capitalism-and-Corporate Greed! Power to the People! Tierra y Libertad!

Luis Moreno: In 2012, we must continue to struggle for liberation! And always remember, the words of our comrade Malcolm X, "our objective is complete freedom, justice and equality by any means necessary."

Francisco Romero; The capitalists/imperialists will attempt to bury our resistance by outlawing our history, they will attempt to strike fear into our communities by increasing their campaign of detentions and deportations... but, our gente will paint magnificent and bold murals on their cold concrete pillars, we will carve out a slogan of protest upon their prison wall, and the drumbeat and verses of our revolution will be etched into the hearts of our pueblo... Hasta La Victoria! "

Antonio Velasquez: 2012 must be the year we make every effort to unshackle our thoughts from the insane beasts that would exploit the many for their own greed. Abajo el zionismo en Palestina y en America Ocupada!
